

Rules and event regulations

Entry open to anyone over the age of 16 (11 years for the 4k run).

Every runner is responsible for themselves and their equipment.

All competitors must sign on and pick up their event number before running the course.

If you retire for any reason please inform an event official.

All instructions given by event officials must be observed.

Entries will be taken online and will be given on a first come first served basis.

All equipment used at an event must be fit for purpose and used at riders own risk.

Runners must obey all event marshals' and event officials' instructions.

Use of a music player or other similar device with headphones is not permitted.

The Borders are beautiful, these roads are a haven for cyclists, runners and other nature.

Don't drop any litter.

The event will take place regardless of bad weather, unless the organisers deem there is a safety concern. If the event is stopped or re-routed for reasons of safety, there will be no refund available.

The organisers will endeavour to give all entrants a time derived from the electronic timing chip system provided. However, they are not responsible in the unlikely event of fault in the electronic timing system.

Responsibilities

Runners attend the event on their own account and at their own risk. The runner is responsible for the safety of his clothes and equipment. The organisers are not responsible and cannot be held responsible for any injuries and/or damages as results of any action during the event.

The organisers reserve the right to disqualify any runner in breach of any of these regulations.

If an official car park is offered during the event usage of this will be at your own risk, the organisation is not responsible and cannot be held responsible for any loss, theft and/or damage as a result of this.

This agreement starts with the entry. The organisation reserves the right to make any necessary changes or even to cancel the whole event according to safety problems at any time, official orders, government laws or other unforeseen events.

Entry/Registration is only available through the system on this website.

Over 16s only. (11 years for the 4k run).

If the registered starter cannot attend the event, they have no right to reclaim the registration fee. No runner may use another's runner's event number.

Cancellation policy

If the safety of runners and staff becomes an issue we may have to cancel an event, or if we have to cancel the event for reasons outwith our control, this will be announced on our website as soon as possible before the event, and runners will receive a refund minus an admin fee.

If an event is cancelled due to adverse or dangerous conditions any time after 17.00 on the Thursday before the event we will refund a percentage of the entry fee taking in account any outlaid costs.

Bib number

Every runner will get a bib number. Bib numbers must be readable throughout the event.

Water stations

Water stations will be available along the course, but all riders are responsible to supply sufficient food to complete the run.

Waiver of liability

Every runner understands and admits that his participation in the event is voluntary. He assumes full responsibility for any injuries or damages from his participation in the event. He recognises and understands that the activities may be hazardous, that his participation is solely at his own risk and that he assumes full responsibility for any resulting injuries and damages that may occur.

Every runner affirms, that he is in good health. He declares that he is physically fit and capable to participate in the event.

Every runner has to acknowledge that he has read and understand this entire waiver of liability and agrees to be legally bound by it.

Withdrawal

The event officials hold the right to withdraw starters if they feel there is a danger for the starter or any other person.

Data Protection Act 1998

By submitting an application to take part in an event, the participants also allow the event organisers to use personal data for campaigns and activities connected to the events. The organisers shall have unlimited rights to publish pictures of the participants; to forward these photos to press representatives and to use them for marketing activities.
